

HURSTVILLE SPRING FAIR.

Multi-coloured streamers decorated the stalls in the Hurstville Skating Rink last Thursday and Friday for the annual spring fair conducted in aid of St. George's Church of England, Hurstville. The fair was opened on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Clive Evatt, with the Rector, Rev. G. S. Richmond, presiding. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Evatt by Mrs. Swann, and a floral bouquet was presented to the former by little Patricia Saunders. The opening on Friday was performed by Mr. Clive Evatt, M.L.A. for Hurstville. Various competitions were conducted during the day and evening sessions.

Contributors: "Mrs. J. Wain, "Mother's" Union, Mesdames Russell, Shellard, and Elphick; cakes, Cholt; Mesdames Walker, Naylor, and Chandler; jams, Mesdames Parmenter and McGregor; produce, Mesdames Field, Berkley, Harvey, and Pritchard; fancy, District Visitors; sweets, Misses Stanley, Pritchard, Leivesley, N. and B. Hardwick; flowers, Miss B. Hall and members of the Girls' Fellowship; china, Mesdames Slater, Richmond, Alexander, Poulton, Misses Rigby and Saunders; refreshments, Mesdames Houghton, McComas, Maude, Hartley, and Miss Clements; aunt Sally, Members of the Church of England Boys' Society; dips, Danebank School Pupils; hoop-la, Boy Scouts' Committee, Mesdames Perry, Dean-Jones, McMillan, Davies, Hunt, Thomas, Buckingham, Dunes, Swinfield, and Nicholson.

At Monday's meeting of the Hurstville Rotary Club Mr. Fred. Brown, one of the oldest residents of Hurstville, gave an interesting address on his recent holiday trip to America. Mr. C. H. Barter (President) occupied the chair, and there was a good attendance of members. Alderman F. Beehag (Rockdale) moved a vote of thanks to the speaker.