

DANEBANK SCHOOL

Musical at Hurstville

The Parents and Friends' Association of Danebank Church of England School, Hurstville, held a musicale in the Hurstville auditorium of the Australian Gas Light Company on Wednesday, March 24. During the evening a most interesting cooking demonstration was given by Miss Scott (Home Service Adviser). The president of the association, Mrs. C. M. Storer, presided over the large gathering. The musical programme was contributed by the Danebank Middle School Choir heard to advantage in "Mowing the Barley." Soloists were Nanette Nicol and Denise Barr, who performed their parts in costume. Miss Mildred Jarman, violinist, played "Rondino," after which the Danebank senior choir sang "Five Eyes." Soprano solos rendered by Miss Dolores Roberts were "Sleep My Princess" and "Love's Roundabout." Mr. Leslie Tattersall (tenor) sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Arise O Sun." Vocal duets rendered by Miss Dolores Roberts and Mr. Leslie Tattersall were "They Didn't Believe Me" and "Only Make Believe." Mrs. Stroud was the accompanist. As a result of the function school funds will benefit.
