

DANEBANK SCHOOL.

The pupils of Danebank Church of England School, Hurstville, held a concert in the Masonic Hall, Hurstville, on Monday afternoon, December 5. Quite a large gathering of parents and friends of the pupils attended, and enjoyed the programme contributed by the young folk. Among the items were pianoforte solos by Angela Ross and Janice Grimbble; physical culture displays by juniors and seniors; also action songs, which were creditably performed, particularly the children's adaptation of "Little Red Riding Hood."
