

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Carol Lewis, of the Bexley North Public School, who won the 8-year-old district school championship at the recent school sports at the Hurstville Oval, has since won the same age State championship at the Sydney Cricket Ground sports.

The Minister for Education has informed Mr. A. J. Williams, M.L.A., that he has increased the proposed accommodation to be provided at the Jannali Public School. Two class-rooms, in the form of a double portable, will now be provided.

A fete will be held in the new Catholic Church School Hall, Kookaburra Street, Kingsgrove, on Friday, November 25, and Saturday, November 26. There will be decorated stalls laden with gifts for Christmas, children's wearing apparel, chocolate wheels, games, etc. Proceeds will be in aid of the building fund.

Mr. Ray Watson, Liberal candidate for Werriwa, which embraces part of Sutherland Shire, has been re-elected to the Sydney University Union Board. From thirty candidates among men students Mr. Watson topped the poll, gaining 842 votes out of the 7285 votes cast. Mr. Ray Watson, who is very popular in the Shire, is a young law graduate at present completing his arts course.

In reply to Hurstville Council's request for the display of "school" signs in Park Road, Hurstville, in the vicinity of Danebank Church of England School, the Department of Road Transport has advised council that, after an inspection of the site by officers of the Department and the Police Traffic Branch, arrangements have been made for the display of two such signs at the earliest practicable date.

Following the resignation of Dr. G. Fenton, after twelve years' service as Medical Superintendent, the Board of Directors of the St. George Hospital has appointed Dr. D. M. Storey to that position. After serving overseas as a medical officer with the A.I.F. in World War II., Dr. Storey was appointed to the

A.I.F. in World War II., Dr. Storey was appointed to the St. George Hospital as Assistant Medical Superintendent in September, 1946, and Medical Superintendent from September, 1948.