

DANEBANK SCHOOL

Fancy Dress Frolic

Members of the Parents and Friends' Association of Danebank Church of England School Hurstville, held a children's fancy dress frolic on Saturday afternoon, July 11, at the school in Park Road. In the absence of Lady Braddon through illness, the function was opened by Dr. G. Wilson (Principal of the School), and the prizes were presented by Beth Nicol, of Station 2 GB. Many novel and attractive costumes were worn by the children, the various sections being judged by Beth Nicol, who awarded the prizes as follow: Most humorous costume (girl), Diana Craig; boy, Colin Cruden. Best national dress, Mildred Jarman 1, Leone Talby 2, Karen Wolfe 3. Most original costume, Lynette Elder. Best-dressed, June Cruden. Nursery rhymes, Peia Johnson. Best paper costume, Carol Garratt. Cheapest costume, Jill Pencock. Best decorated gram, Caroline Storer. Best decorated scooter, B. Smith.

In charge of the various stalls were: Afternoon tea, Mesdames Stainby, Garratt, Hale, Edwards, King and Russell; cake, Mesdames Elder and Livermore; drinks, Mr. Weston; games, Messrs. Beckenham, Edwards, and Jarman. The amount realised for the afternoon was £18, which will augment the kindergarten piano fund.
