

DANEBANK SCHOOL.

At the commencement of this year the Church of England completed the transfer of Danebank School in Park Rd., Hurstville, to the control of the Council for the Promotion of Church of England Schools. On Tuesday, March 8, an auxiliary council was formed to assist in the supervising, expansion and development of the school, and to generally assist in bringing about any improvements for the benefit of the children. Members of the Danebank Council will be: President, Rev. G. R. Richmond; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. Olds and Barnett; Secretary, Miss Ball; and Ald. D. Cross, M.L.A., Ald. N. Macpherson (Mayor of Hurstville), and Mesdames Cross, Olds, Webb, and Kane. Miss Ball reported that the school has now one hundred pupils. The opening of the school by the Archbishop of Sydney will be held on Saturday, May 28.
