

DANEBANK SCHOOL.

Musicale at Hurstville.

The Parents and Friends' Association of Danebank School, Hurstville, recently held a musicale in the Hurstville auditorium of the Australian Gas Light Company. A cooking demonstration was given in conjunction with the musicale by Miss D. Andrews (Home Service Adviser) and her assistants. The function was arranged by the ladies' social committee, under the direction of Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Storer. The President of the the P. and F. Association, Mr. N. Macpherson, presided over a large gathering. The demonstration by Miss Andrews proved interesting and included novelty cooking for men, which created much amusement. The musical programme was contributed by Mrs. Lloyd (soprano), Miss Patricia Sage (violiniste), Mr. Lloyd (tenor), Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd (vocal duets). Danebank Senior Girls' Choir rendered Brahms' "Lullaby," "Santa Lucia," and "Down in the Glen." The accompanists were Dr. O. Wilson and Mr. S. E. Thode.
