

DANEBANK CHURCH OF ENGLAND SCHOOL.

The sixteenth annual speech day in connection with Danebank Church of England School, Hurstville, was held on Dec. 9. Rev. G. S. Richmond presided over a large gathering. Carols and part songs were sung by the children, also items by the school percussion band. The Headmistress, Miss E. R. Ball, presented the annual report, which showed progress during the year. Addresses were given by Miss G. A. Roseby, B.A., and Rev. C. E. Hulley (President of Diocesan Council of Church of England Schools).

During the function the Mayoress of Hurstville, Mrs. N. Macpherson, made a presentation to Miss Ball (Principal) on behalf of the Parents and Friends' Association. A present was also given to each kindergarten pupil on behalf of the association from the Christmas tree. A vote of thanks was moved by Rev. G. S. Richmond and Ald. N. Macpherson (Mayor).

Miss G. A. Roseby, B.A., presented the prizes to successful students as follow:—
Janice Grimbble and Jill Totten (senior and junior scripture); Kathlyn McDonald (dux) and Margaret Paskins (3rd year); Sturt Duncan (2nd year); Lois Sharp (1st year); Enid Hadfield (6th class); Janice Dobell and John Hincks (5th class); Susan Morton, Robert Doring, Wiesje Vogelaar and Maureen Rohan (4th class); Jill Totton, Jill Crothers, and Maxwell Lindsay (2nd class).
Special prizes for sportmanship, Julia Solmers, Janet Stuart, and Enid Hadfield; courtesy and general improvement, Margaret Stark.
Physical culture medals and certificates were presented to Patricia Buconi, Kathlyn McDonald, Janice Grimbble, Judith Hampson (senior); Maureen Rohan, Faye Boyd, Julie Morgan, Margaret Stark, Susan Morton, Doreen Hincks, Jill Totton, Delma Rohan, Gaynor Dunne (junior); Boys, Maxwell Lindsay, Hine Vogelaar, Frank Bufoni; tennis prizes, Janice Wiesje Vogelaar, Frank Bufoni; tennis prizes, Janice Dobell, Leonard Jones, Pauline Parsons, and Enid Hadfield.