

FETE AT OATLEY.

Members of the Ladies' Guild of All Saints' Church of England, West Oatley, held their annual fete in the church and grounds on Saturday last. Occurred.

The Rector, Rev. S. N. Paddison, presided and welcomed those present, particularly Dr. Wilson (Principal of Danebank Church of England School), also the Mayoress of Hurstville, Mrs. H. Mallard. The Rector thanked the ladies of the guild for their splendid effort, with Mrs. Bradford (president), Mrs. Watts (treasurer), and Mrs. Cole (Secretary).

In declaring the fete open Dr. Wilson congratulated the ladies on their effort and said it was a good thing to see people working for others, and in church work it was definitely for others. She pointed out that, as a psychologist, she believed in service—service for others—and by that service people were helping themselves. Mrs. Bradford presented Dr. Wilson with a bouquet and a souvenir book autographed by the stallholders.

A cooking competition was responsible for many entries which were judged by Mrs. Smith. The winners were as follow:—Sponge Mrs. Taggart; log cake, special prize donated by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Taggart; chocolate cake, Mrs. Cooper; sultana cake, Mrs. Cooper.

Stallholders were as follow:—Work stall, Mrs. Bradford, assisted by Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Bennett; jam stall, Mesdames Myrsh and Court; novelty stall, Mesdames Cooper, Richards, and Rasmus; cake stall, Mrs. Watts and Miss Jordan; hop-la, Messrs. Warren and McNamara; sweets, Mrs. Propsting and Miss Jordan; dips, Misses M. Hanson, H. Hanson, and Helen Tidmarsh; drinks, N. and J. Sparrowhawk, M. and E. Walker, J. Stead, and M. Siddons; posies, John Giles; woodwork, B. Shepherd; flowers, Mesdames Jones, Ryan, Harvey, and D. Bennett; refreshments, Mrs. Jordan, and senior girls; horses and games, men's committee.

Approximately £171 was realised as a result of the efforts.
