

DANEBANK SCHOOL.

An interesting study class of child psychology is being held at Danebank School, Hurstville, during the winter months. The lecturer, Miss Zoe Benjamin, vice-principal of the Sydney Kindergarten and Preparatory Teachers' College, is one of the principal authorities on child education, and is widely known for her expert knowledge of modern scientific treatment of children. There are still eleven remaining lectures. Class membership now totals well over forty. Anyone wishing to become a member may apply to Miss E. R. Ball, 88 Park Road, Hurstville.
