

HURSTVILLE YULETIDE FAIR.

Christmas decorations featured the Yuletide Fair conducted in St. George's Church of England hall, Hurstville, last Thursday and Friday, for church funds. Numerous competitions were conducted at the evening sessions including nail-driving for ladies and hat-trimming for men. Stallholders were:—Mesdames Richmond, Slater, Alexander, Poulton, Misses Saunders and Rigby (china); Miss Hall and members of the Girls' Fellowship (sweets); Mesdames Grice and Swann, and lady visitors (fancy-work); Mesdames Perry and Dean-Jones, and Boy Scouts (hoop-la and darts); Mesdames Walker and Chandler and members of the choir (cakes); Mesdames Parmenter and Harris (jams); Mesdames Bissell and Salway, and members of the Mothers' Union (plain); Mesdames Field, Town, Keep, Pritchard, and members of the Women's Guild (produce); Mesdames McComas, Hartley, Houghton, and Essex (refreshments); Mr. Bulgin and members of the Church of England Boys' Society (aunt sally); Miss Ball and pupils of Danebank School (dips); Sunday school teachers (drinks).