

ENGLISHMAN APPEALS FOR WARM CLOTHING

"DEAR Sir Madam, I have been told by relatives living in your country of the great work your committee is doing in the matter of warm clothing to be sent to this Isle of Austerity."

I would like to appeal to you on behalf of my own and some of the families of ex-servicemen who served with me, and I trust that your help will make less anxious the anticipated bitterness of the coming winter."

This letter, with an accompanying list giving the names and addresses of families and the number and ages of their children, was received this week by the Woollies Appeal from Mr James Tver, of 22 Danebank Road, Liverpool, England.

There are five children on the list and their ages range from a 10-months-old baby girl to a boy of 8½.

It is typical of letters received by the Woollies Appeal since it opened its drive in Victoria for 50,000 hand-knitted woollies for distribution to British children this Christmas.

The Woollies Appeal is glad to receive donations of bought wool-lies from those who wish to support the appeal, but do not have the time to knit.

The depot at the Town Hall is open from 10 a.m. to 4.30 p.m., Mondays to Fridays.
