

Pre-Wedding Parties

Miss Frances Hunter Evans, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Evans, of "Yallambee," Nepean and Fitch Avenues, Penrith, whose marriage with Mr. Douglas Campbell, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, of Penshurst, will take place at St. Paul's Church of England, Emu Plains, next Saturday, November 17, at 6.30 p.m., with the Rev. R. S. Chapple, of Hornsby, former Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Penrith, assisted by the Rev. J. Ross (Rector), officiating, was tendered a shower tea on Saturday, November 10, by her bridesmaids, Misses Susanne Hunter Evans (sister), Denise Hunter Walker (cousin) and Gwenneth Paskin, and friends at "Del-Rio," by the river, the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Spees, which had been kindly placed at the disposal of the organisers. About 80 people attended, and a delightful afternoon tea on the lawn was provided by the bridesmaids and friends. Many beautiful individual gifts were received.

During the function Master Tony Spees, at the piano, was accompanied by Regina Hines (piano-accordion), and a little Dutch boy from Wallgrove camp with his guitar. The solos chosen were "Forever and Ever," "Tennessee Waltz," and "Mocking Bird Hill."

Mrs. Ross M. Cox, who prior to her marriage was Miss Yvonne Thorpe, a former teacher at "Danebank" Church of England Grammar School, Hurstville, where Frances Evans has been teaching for about three years, held a kitchen tea at her home, Meaken Street, Hurstville, on Saturday, October 27, for Frances.

Some 25 persons attended, including the mothers of school pupils. Many useful gifts were received.
