

DANEBANK SCHOOL

Dr. Wilson Farewelled

A farewell evening was tendered by the Parents and Friends' Committee of Danebank Church of England School to Dr. Wilson (Principal) on the eve of her departure to rejoin her husband in Japan. There was a large attendance and Rev. R. F. Gray (chaplain of the school) expressed the appreciation and high esteem of all present for Dr. Wilson's services, whilst Principal of Danebank. His remarks were supported by Mrs. Storer (President of the Committee) and Mr. A. L. Bryant (chairman). A presentation of a portable typewriter and floral tribute was made on behalf of the school by Angela Ross and Margaret Lowe (school captains). Dr. Wilson responded, expressing her thanks to all parents and friends who had worked so hard to provide the amenities for the school, and to those who had co-operated so well with its functioning, especially Rev. R. F. Gray, who had always been so willing to help deal with problems. Dr. Wilson said she considered Danebank well established, and felt assured of its progress and future.

A musical programme provided exceptionally good entertainment and was contributed by the following: School senior choir sang "The Thrush," "Flying Clouds," and later the school Hymn and repeated the school Prayer. Mildred Jarman (violinist) played Chopin's "Study No. 3," "Tales from Vienna Woods" (Strauss) and "Little Romance." Pupils of Miss Gwen Bazeley (of Concord) presented in costume, "Doll Dance," "Mexican Hat Dance," also "Waltz and Prelude to Sylphides." Miss Rae Candy rendered "One Fine Day," "The Echo Song," and later sang in duet with Mr. Leslie Felton "No One Can Love You More" (Paganini), and "Lovely Maid in the Moonlight" (La Boheme). Mr. Leslie Felton delighted with his rendition of "Farewell" (Madame Butterfly), and "Be My Love." Mr. Bryant thanked the artists and presentations were made to them by the school captains. Supper was served by the committee.
