

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH FAIR.

Patriotic colours and flags were a feature of the brightly-decorated stalls at the Empire fair of St. George's Church of England, Hurstville, which was opened last Thursday afternoon by Dr. A. C. Thomas, who was accompanied by Mrs. Thomas. The fair was also continued on Friday. Rev. G. S. Richmond presided, proceeds being in aid of church funds. In a short address Dr. Thomas referred to his experiences while abroad with the A.I.F., and to the magnificent work done by Australian soldiers in the theatre of war. Mrs. Thomas was presented with a pottery vase and camellias. The various stallholders were as follow:—Fancy, Mesdames R. M. Bulgin and A. Grice and Misses H. Nicholls and L. Draper; cakes, Mesdames A. J. Walker, T. Chandler, F. Naylor; jams and pickles, Mesdames W. J. Burnett and R. W. Johnson; plain, Mesdames M. Bissell, J. Harris, B. Salway; chinaware, Mesdames G. S. Richmond, A. Slater, Poulton, and Sister Saunders; drinks and ice cream, Mrs. A. Shallard; produce, Mesdames A. Field, H. Town, and F. Keep; sweets, Misses Bessie Hall, Ruth Johnson, Margery Chappell, Ethel Weatherby, Miriam Johnson, Betty Braithwaite, Lucy Bancroft (girls' fellowship); refreshments, Mesdames T. Berkeley, E. Hartley, W. Essex, F. McComas; fish pond dip, pupils of Danebank School.
