

ANNUAL FETE

At Danebank School

Members of Danebank School Parents and Friends' Association held their annual fete in the school grounds, Park Road, Hurstville, on Saturday, October 10. The fete was officially opened by Lady Braddon, accompanied by her two grandchildren, Pamela and Michael Braddon. Lady Braddon paid tribute to the high standard of learning at the school, and of the progress made during the year. She congratulated members of the Parents and Friends' Association on their fine effort and commended them for the work they were doing for the school. Floral tributes were presented to Lady Braddon and Mrs. Cowell (Acting Headmistress) by Angela Ross and Jill Peacock. Among those present were Mrs. Brown with her Brownie Pack, also Mr. and Mrs. Christie from Ipswich Queensland. Entertainment was provided by Mrs. Barrett (pianists), Leonie Talby (dancer), Mildred Jarman (violinist), Lynette Bamman, Glen Stainley, Jan Martin, Carol Garratt, Peta Bolton, Irene and Lorraine Martin (verses). Willing helpers in charge of the various stalls which were tastefully decorated and well-stocked, were: Fancy Goods, Madames Storer, Bamman, and Hedgecock; toys, Madames Beckenham and Livermore; flowers, Mrs. Peacock and Misses Shirley Petersen and Jean Bowden; preserves, Mrs. Sneddon; sweets, Mr. and Mrs. Eider; cakes, Madames Garratt and Hale; hoop-la, Messrs. Beck, Watson and Bryant; ice cream, Mrs. Wallace; drinks, Mr. Jarman; afternoon tea, Madames Stainley, Jarman, Russell, and King.
